

A night of song and dance

- ▶ SYKES Asia, organized a fundraising event on June 26, 2010 for the benefit of SYKES Cares', Springboard Foundation and their Night, High Scholars sponsored through 'A Better Chance Foundation' for the School Year 2010-2011.
- ▶ The fundraising event, entitled, "Vignettes," was organized by the Sykes' Thespian Clique, in cooperation with SYKES Choices and Branding and Communications, together with the YAFC NSOLL Repertory. With special participation of the SYKES Chorale and the 45th Band of Musicians the SYKES Club, "Vignettes," showcased the singing, acting and dancing talents of Sykes employees in musical selections from 4 plays: "A Midsummer Night's Dream," "Room 77," "Once on this Island," and "The King and I."

- ▶ SYKES Asia invited 40 of their Night, High School scholars from Siena College, Taytay, Rizal to attend the musical event, along with members of Springboard Foundation and A Better Chance Foundation. The guests were treated to a wonderful night of singing and dancing.

- ▶ Earlier in the day, a tour bus, was sent to the campus of Siena, Taytay, to pick the children up. They were then brought to the Philam life Theater in Manila where the show was to be held. The show, started at 7:00 pm and lasted until late into the evening.

- ▶ The 40 students truly enjoyed this special event and are very thankful that SYKES Asia made this trip possible. They felt very special to have dinner and fellowship with their donor.
- ▶ SYKES Asia is one of the corporate sponsors donating to ‘A Better Chance Foundation’ through The Springboard Foundation. SYKES Asia has pledged to sponsor 45 Night High Scholars from Siena College; from their first year of high school all the way to graduation in 2012
